

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

NICK SNYDER, et al.,

Plaintiffs,

v.

WASHINGTON NATIONALS
BASEBALL CLUB, LLC,

Defendant.

Civil Action No. 1:24-cv-01182 (CJN)

In this case, Plaintiffs challenged Defendant's former "Millennial" and "Young Professional" ticket discount of up to 30% plus a spending credit of $5 to $15 per ticket on certain regular season tickets, offered to fans who were 21 to 39 years old at the time of purchase (the "Discount"). The parties agreed to resolve the lawsuit through a settlement, and you have been identified as a member of the Settlement Class, entitling you to consideration. On September 12, 2025 Judge Carl J. Nichols finally approved the settlement in this matter.

Ticket Purchases:

CLAIM FORM

IMPORTANT: If you want to receive a ticket credit, you do not need to submit this Claim Form. Defendant will deposit the ticket credit directly into your MLB.com account.

[CONTINUES ON BACK]

The amount of the ticket credit will be the greater of $18 or two (2) times the "Actual Damages"¹ for each "Covered Ticket Purchase."² If you elect to receive a cash payment instead of a ticket credit, the amount of the cash payment will be 62.2% of the Actual Damages.

For example, if you had one Covered Ticket Purchase and your Actual Damages for that ticket are $20, then you would have a choice between receiving a cash payment of $12.44 (i.e., 62.2% of your Actual Damages) or ticket credit of $40 (i.e., two (2) times your Actual Damages). If your Actual Damages were $8 for that ticket, you will have a choice between receiving a cash payment of $4.97 or a ticket credit of $18.

To receive a cash payment, as opposed to the ticket credit, under the Settlement, this Claim Form must be fully completed and mailed, emailed, overnight delivered or faxed so that it is received by the Claims Administrator at the address below on or before December 12, 2025.
